Certificate of Undergraduate Study in Foundations of Literature
(12 credits, program code U173)

The Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS) in Foundations of Literature allows non-majors to earn a credential in English by taking four literature courses. Reading a range of texts in the US, British, and world literary traditions, students will broaden and deepen their cultural fluency and knowledge in discussion-based classes. They will also develop their analytic and communication skills while being introduced to a range of critical methodologies and literary theories.

Students are required to complete one of the following Rowan Core English courses: 3 s.h.

- Introduction to British Literature (ENGL 02.110)
- Introduction to US Literature (ENGL 02.113)
- Introduction to Global Literatures in English (ENGL 02.116)
- Topics in Literature (ENGL 02.123)

And:

- Critical Methods I for English Majors (ENGL 02.101) 3 s.h.

Students are also required to take either another Rowan Core English course (see list above) or a 200-level English elective. 200-level electives include:
