

Career Opportunities

After earning both a bachelor's degree at Rowan University and a Juris Doctorate, students will have developed strong written, oral, and critical analysis skills and will have extensive knowledge of core legal subjects. These skills will prepare students for careers in:

- Prominent law firms
- Government agencies
- Public Interest
- Major corporations
- Politics

Things to keep in mind

1. Stay in contact with Rowan's Pre-Law Advisor.
2. Make sure you also meet with your major advisor at least once a semester to plan out your course schedule. This is the best way to ensure you are on target to complete all major and core requirements in three years.
3. Join the Pre-Law Society, Rowan's student organization for undergraduates interested in law school. The Pre-Law Society hosts guest speakers, law school informational sessions, and such events as an annual Law School Fair, an annual Mock Law School class, a law school admissions "counselor-in-residence," and a Mock Law School Admissions Committee session.

Admitted students may also qualify for significant scholarship aid to offset the cost of attendance and housing during the regular academic year.

What are the 3+3 Programs?

They are new programs that allow students to earn a bachelor's degree and a J.D. in only six years, instead of seven, saving you time and money by completing your law degree with your first year of law school simultaneously counting as your last year of undergraduate study. Each 3+3 program comes with significant scholarship opportunities.

What is the 4+3 Program?

Students may also take advantage of 4+3 programs at Widener University-Delaware Law School and Drexel University Thomas R.Kline School of Law by completing all Rowan degree requirements before enrolling in law school and satisfying the law school admissions criteria in this brochure. Scholarship opportunities are also available.
