

Rumi Symposium for Peace and Justice

Tuesday, October 24, 2017

5PM – 8PM

Chamberlain Student Center Pit

Join us for a night of peace and love —

The symposium will feature musical and dance performances by Middle Eastern and South Asian artists and a talk by Dr. Jawid Mojaddedi of Rutgers University on the significance and relevance of Rumi as a historical figure whose teachings have endured the test of time.

Enjoy a sampling of culturally-relevant food!

Guest Speaker

Jawid Mojaddedi, Ph.D. is Professor of Religion at Rutgers University. His area of research is early and medieval Sufism. In addition to his translations of Rumi's poetry, he has also published the monograph Beyond Dogma: Rumi's Teachings on Friendship with God and Early Sufi Theories.

"I belong to no religion. My religion is love, every heart is my temple."

—Rumi
