SPANISH MAJOR CONCENTRATION / CERTIFICATE OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDY (CUGS) IN
PENINSULAR SPANISH LITERATURE AND CULTURE

The Spanish Major Concentration/Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS) in Peninsular Spanish Literature and Culture (12 s.h.) recognizes students' completion of 12 s.h. in related coursework at the 300 and 400 levels. For Spanish Majors, this credential is referred to as a Concentration; for non-Spanish Majors, this credential is referred to as a Certificate. This Concentration/Certificate enhances the profile of all job applicants across all fields of study, as it represents Advanced-level proficiency and the ability to access the culture of Spain through its literature, with a view to giving students an in-depth, sophisticated level of knowledge that will serve them in their professional life in many fields, including, for example, diplomacy, translation, education and politics.

This Concentration / Certificate in Peninsular Spanish Literature and Culture may be declared in the Department of World Languages, Oak Hall 107, or by contacting the University Advising Center, Savitz Hall, Suite 323 (856-256-4459 / advise@rowan.edu). Students who have declared the program may schedule an advising appointment with the Program Advisor: Cindy Finer (finer@rowan.edu) for Spanish Majors and Harold Thompson (thompsonh@rowan.edu) for non-Spanish Majors.
