Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS)
Operating Systems Fundamentals

Program Information

The Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS) in Operating Systems Fundamentals is designed to offer students the opportunity of a specialized study to provide students with experience in key courses of this discipline at the undergraduate level. This CUGS prepares students to sit for the following certification exams:

- LFCS: Linux Foundation Certified IT Associate Examination

The Certificate of Undergraduate Study in Operating Systems Fundamentals consists of 12 s.h.

Students seeking this CUGS are required to successfully complete (grade of D- or better) the four courses in the order listed below:

Course Number	Course Name	Pre-Reqs	S.H.
CST 06220	Linux/Unix Essentials	None	3
CST 06225	Linux/Unix Administration	CST 06220	3
CST 06230	Microcomputer Operating Systems I: Workstation	None	3
CST 06235	Microcomputer Operating Systems II: Server Systems	CST 06230	3